

Postmaster Kohler Gives Tips on Holiday Mail

Postmaster George Kohler said today, "We expect more mail between now and Christmas than ever before. Earlier shopping, earlier mailing, and using ZIP Codes are the biggest factors in getting all of the mail delivered before Christmas. Post office facilities have been expanding, ample help will be available and everything is being geared up to handle the Christmas mail but public cooperation is necessary for our operation to be successful."

He urged that gift parcels and greeting cards sent by ordinary surface for distant states be mailed this week. Gifts and greeting cards for mailing to nearby states should be mailed by Dec. 13. Domestic Air Mail and greeting cards should be mailed by Dec. 19.

Postmaster Kohler stated, "Be certain that all addresses are correct, and wherever possible, add the ZIP Code to the address on all letters, cards and parcels. Don't take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use corrugated mail cartons, plenty of heavy wrapping paper, and strong cord and be sure to put an extra label carrying the recipient's name and address and your name and address inside of each package. Cartons containing several gift packages should be well stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents."

If you have articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the Post Office before attempting to mail them to be sure that you are within size and weight limits.

The Postmaster further advises to send your Christmas cards by First Class mail; this assures their being forwarded if recipient has moved or that undeliverable cards will be returned if return address is on the envelope. Before you mail your Christmas cards, secure free labels from the Post Office which read, "ALL FOR LOCAL DELIVERY" and "ALL FOR OUT OF TOWN DELIVERY," so that you can sort your cards into two bundles, with the addresses all facing one way, thus expediting delivery.

New Nativity Scene This Year

It is planned to have it on display for the first time by 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 12, when the Christmas tree on the BART overhead will be dedicated and the Albany high school choir, directed by Stephen Lehner, will sing Christmas carols.

Warning to Homeowners

by Police Chief Ralph Jensen

During the past few months there has been a phenomenal increase in home burglaries throughout the Bay Area.

Many of the burglaries have taken place in homes where the doors have been unlocked. One recent arrestee admitted 44 burglaries of this type in the Berkeley-Albany area.

Your Police Department is asking the cooperation of all citizens in helping reduce the number of offenses and in the apprehension of offenders. We urge that the following suggestions be considered:

1. If your doors have old-fashioned locks, have them changed. If in doubt, call the Police and an officer will advise you.
2. Keep doors locked even if going to a neighbor's house or working in the back yard.
3. Do not tell anyone who calls for an appointment that you won't be home on a particular day.
4. Do not notify the newspapers that you will be out of town so that a story is printed.
5. When leaving town, stop all paper deliveries, etc. Do not leave notes saying you will be out of town.
6. An investment in a light-timer is a great advantage when leaving town.
7. Leave shades or blinds open when away from the house.

Daniela Verdura AFS Student Living at Blanks

Daniela Verdura

By now many of the residents of Albany have become well acquainted with Albany's new daughter, Daniela Verdura, better known as "Dany."

Dany is our first AFS student from Italy, where she was born in 1950 in the ancient city, Rome. When she applied for the AFS program, Dany stressed her longing to live in "sunny California."

Her wish to live in California was granted but she was amazed at the cold, foggy weather! Dany was also surprised at the large American cars, so unlike the compact foreign models.

Dany's favorite aspect of American life is our school system. She feels that our outside activities and sports add to the spirit of our school and she regrets that the Italian schools do not offer any outside programs.

She has already joined a number of clubs and is a member of the Board of Control. She has attended every basketball and football game and shows spirit in the rooting section.

Besides her school activities, Dany enjoys skiing and horseback riding. She loves the people in Albany and has often stated, "Everyone I have met here has been so friendly to me!" Her other favorite things include hamburgers, Lake Tahoe and "The Jefferson Airplane."

When Dany returns to Italy next August, she plans to attend the Faculty of Biology at the University of Florence in Italy and visit California again in a few years.

She is now living with the Jerome Blank family at 1015 Ramona Avenue.

COUNCIL MOVES AHEAD WITH MASONIC PLANS

Albany City Council Monday night passed a two-part motion dealing with undergrounding of utilities on Masonic Avenue.

The first portion indicates intent to proceed with undergrounding, "to start the ball rolling," in the words of its maker, Councilman George Hein.

The second part, proposed by Councilman Lewis Howell, sets up a committee to work toward undergrounding, headed by City Engineer James B. Turner. It will include one representative each from the city, PG&E and Pacific Telephone and five citizens living in the area involved.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

Turner said the ordinance recently passed dealing with undergrounding does not become effective until Dec. 13, so a hearing date for Masonic Avenue cannot be held until 10 days later, or after Dec. 23.

Councilmen passed a motion by Councilman Howell to draft an emergency ordinance prohibiting parking of dump or garbage trucks on residential streets between midnight and 8 a.m.

Police Chief Ralph M. Jensen's request for a charter amendment on the April, 1968, ballot which would reduce age of retirement from 53 to 50 for police and firemen after 25 years of service drew fire from Howell.

"Our whole retirement system is based on age 53," Howell said. "How can this be financed? The Pension System is in bad shape as it is and many will retire in the next five years. As far as I'm concerned, we should file it in the waste basket!"

It was referred to a work session on charter amendments.

Another request by Jensen that unclaimed property be disposed of in four instead of six months was referred to City Attorney Larry Saler for recommendations.

The attorney was directed to prepare an ordinance along the lines of the "Documentary Stamp Tax Act" of the County Board of Supervisors which would allow Albany to obtain half of the $1.10 per $1,000 on real estate transactions.

Turner explained this could provide $1,000 to $1,500 to the city, which Mayor Richard Clark called a "far cry from the $10,000 expected of our property transfer tax." (The local tax has not been imposed since bitter opposition was expressed by real estate personnel.)

A letter from Alton Lee of El Cerrito complaining about traffic lights on San Pablo Ave., was filed after Turner said there will be improvement shortly along with certain elements of synchronization.

A resolution urging the U.S. government to recognize the needs of the poor and the cities passed but Councilman Joe Carlevato thought something should be done about "the injustice of bringing people to overpopulated urban areas." Councilman Howell said, "This is the U.S. They can go wherever they like. I don't blame people for coming to California from Mississippi, but the government should take care of them, not the people of Alameda County."

Howell paid tribute to the off-duty firemen and other city employees who installed the large community Christmas tree on top of the Rapid Transit overhead Monday in driving wind and rain.

On the suggestion of Carlevato, letters signed by all councilmen will go out to boys in the service as listed in the Times. They will be mailed in time to reach them by Christmas.

In the early days of the Tiny Tim luncheon," said Robert C. Hoover, president of the local society, "guests would bring gifts to be distributed to handicapped children throughout the area. Today, our concept of the event is different. We use it as a focal point to tell the community of the needs and plight of adults as well as children, who suffer from physical disabilities."

A no-host social hour is scheduled to begin at 11:30 a.m., followed by luncheon at 12:30 p.m. The symposium will begin at 2 p.m.

Luncheon and symposium reservations are available through the Society's Rehabilitation Center, 2757 Telegraph Ave., Oakland.

New Dates For Hunter Course

Because of a conflict, dates for the Hunter Safety Training course have been changed from December to January, Police Chief Ralph Jensen has announced.

'Visit to Stable' At Calvary Presbyterian

For a special Advent service, Calvary Presbyterian Church has scheduled a 40 minute drama, "A Visit to a Stable" Sunday, Dec. 10, at 7 p.m.

The play will be presented by MASC, an Oakland-based drama group which performs weekly throughout Northern California and occasionally in Nevada and Oregon. The drama, published last year by Baker's Plays of Boston, is by MASC's executive director, the Rev. Don A. Mueller, who is also directing this production.

Although MASC is derived from Methodist Actors Serving the Church, the group is now not only interdenominational but interfaith as well. This is MASC's first appearance at Calvary Presbyterian Church.

The cast includes June Arthur and Linda Miller of Berkeley, Carl Kehret, Michael Odum and Tom Van Buren of Oakland, and Lightie Lowery of Martinez. Lighting will be by John Phillips of Oakland.

Commented the pastor, the Rev. Garner Scott Odell, "Drama began in the church. Its return to the church is not only appropriate but long overdue."

I rushed to my rifle and threw back the bolt.

The rest of my tent-mates awoke with a jolt.

Outside we could hear our platoon Sergeant Kelly. A hard little man with a little pot belly.

"Come Yankee, come Yankee, come Connors and Watson, Up Miller, up Shiller, up Bawer and Dodson!"

We tumbled outside in a swirl of confusion, So cold that each man could have used a transfusion.

"Get up on that hill-top and silence that red.

"And don't you come back till you're sure that he's dead."

Then, putting his thumb up in front of his nose Sergeant Kelly took leave

But we all heard him say in a voice soft and light: "Merry Christmas to all—may you live through the night!"

Albany YMCA Judo club had its first annual awards dinner Friday, Nov. 17, at Kirby's Banquet Room, El Cerrito Plaza. John Carhart, executive secretary, Albany YMCA, served as master of ceremonies.

Eighty-five people were in attendance, including parents, friends and special guests. M. E. (Gus) Moore, general secretary for the Berkeley-Albany YMCA, was special guest. He also gave the invocation.

Twenty-five diplomas were awarded to the judo students for their achievements in judo by E. H. (Mel) Augustine, fourth degree black belt, head instructor. The certificates were awarded according to the belts they have earned for participation and performance and achievements, with distinction, in the proficiency of the art required for specific color belts. (Also symbolic of their progress and their study of the science of judo.)

Lori Nelson, 15, Kennedy High school, and Yvonne Beckman, 16, Albany High school, received their third degree brown belt certificate. These two students are the first to receive such an honor at the Albany YMCA.

Four special awards for attendance for 1967 were given to Michael Augustine, green belt, Jef-erson school, Berkeley; Sheryl Berling, 10, Albany, Cornell school; Janet Berling, 12, Albany, and Wayne Cunningham, 17, senior at Richmond High school and a second degree brown belt.

The most improved award, an 11-inch Italian marble trophy, was awarded to Jim Haynes of Albany for improving the most not only in the area of judo, but for his overall improvement at home, school and the community.

The high light of the awards dinner was the presentation of special service awards to parents of students who have contributed of their time to the success and growth of the Albany YMCA Judo club. Certificates of recognition were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. James Yamaoka, El Cerrito; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson, El Sobrante; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, San Leandro, and Miss Aneth Takamoto, Castro Valley.

Trophies for services above and beyond expectations, were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham and C. N. Cullimore.

Every second counts this Christmas.

A not-so-funny thing happened on the way to Christmas last year.

We ran out of Accutron® timepieces.

So the customers who came in at the last minute had to settle for a conventional watch.

Some didn't. And we know why.

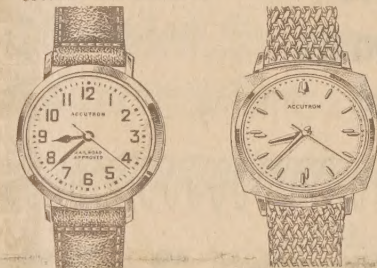

All conventional watches—wind, self-wind and electric—keep time by the gyrations of a balance wheel. It splits a second into 5 parts.

But Accutron is not a watch. It's a precise timepiece that keeps time through the vibrations of a tiny tuning fork. The tuning fork splits each second into 360 equal parts.

And keeps time so accurate, we guarantee monthly accuracy within 60 seconds*—which averages out to about 2 seconds a day.

Every second counts during December days. Because what happened last year could happen again.

So run in before we run out.

Editor, the Times:
New linear park is wonderful... stop. Trash on ground is not... stop. Where is garbage can?... stop... End message.
STEVE BENSON
819 Cornell Ave.

I am a little girl who is going to be six in April. (A friend is writing this letter for me.) I have five sisters and brothers. We all get good grades and go to church every Sunday. My brother, who is eight, and I are praying very hard for a two wheeler bike with trainer wheels. All the kids in our neighborhood except us have bikes.

Mommy does all she can but she has no money for Christmas. A lady we call "the Santa Claus lady" from Albany brought us shoes and bedding and has promised us rain clothes. She said her husband could paint a bike if someone has an old one, but we have no money to repair one that is broken.
If anyone would like to know more about us, the phone number of "Santa Claus Lady" is 527-1888.
Thank you.

Mental Health 'Operation Santa Claus'

Alameda County Mental Health Association has announced the kick-off drive for "Operation Santa Claus." The announcement was made by Kenneth M. Hill of Hayward, this year's volunteer chairman for the Santa Claus project.

The Mental Health Association, an agency of the United Crusade, annually sponsors this Christmas gift program to provide individually wrapped presents for Alameda County patients at Napa and Agnews State hospitals, Highland County wards, Herick psychiatric ward, and for Alameda County patients at Mendocino State hospital.

The project also provides ward parties for the patients with music, games, and all the festivities of Christmas including ice cream, cookies and candy.

"It is true that your tax deductible dollar buys the gifts," commented Hill, "but it is the thought behind your gift that gives this whole thing its meaning."

There is a great need among the patients for personal items, new or used. The most welcome gifts would be tobacco, shaving cream, hair oil, combs and brushes, jewelry, nail polish, cosmetics, games, etc. Gifts do not have to be wrapped since this will be done by agency volunteers; however, gift wrap and ribbon would be appreciated. Gifts must be received by Dec. 15. Cash donations will be welcomed, and used to purchase articles most needed.

The general collection depot for gifts is the Alameda County Mental Health Association, 1527 Webster Street, Oakland, phone 451-7313. Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays. If gifts cannot be delivered, please call the office for volunteer pickup service.

Free Hearing Aids For Needy Kids

If there is a needy child in this community who needs better hearing, his letter to Santa Claus can be answered this year, thanks to Sonotone Corporation, the nationwide hearing aid organization.

Irving I. Schachtel, president of Sonotone, has announced his company will again give 1,000 free Sonotone hearing aids on a national basis to children who need hearing aids and who do not now have them because of financial reasons.

This is the 14th Christmas that Sonotone has helped bring the joyous sounds of the holidays—and all year 'round—to youngsters now deprived of better hearing.

The gifts can be arranged through Sonotone of Berkeley, located at 1705 Solano Ave. Any one who knows a needy child with a hearing loss, who does not have the advantage of an adequate hearing aid, is invited to get in touch immediately with Luella Flynn, local Sonotone manager.

"No child need miss the bells of Christmas, and no teenager need start the New Year with a hearing handicap, because of family financial problems," Mrs. Flynn said.

"Bring the child to my office for a hearing test. As soon as I investigate this request and am satisfied the child can be helped by one of our hearing aids, I will recommend to our home office at Elmsford, N.Y., that an aid be given to the child free. Application should be made early to be in time for Christmas.

"The case can be facilitated if the child's financial and physical problem is certified by a responsible individual or group, such as a doctor, teacher, clergyman, PTA, civic group, welfare organization, etc."
